Chairman's Message

To improve the livelihood status of the poor and ultra-poor men, women and children including marginal farmer through under taking various need based sustainable development programs. Through education, health services, training and development programs ensuring social and economic development of those who want to participate in every sphere of socio-economic development process meaningfully.